Featured speakers

Sharon Zollner - ANZ Chief Economist

Sharon joined the ANZ economics team in 2010, having started her career in the Reserve Bank of New Zealand in 1998. She holds a Master of Commerce from the University of Canterbury. She also worked at the central bank of Norway for two years, before moving to the New Zealand banking sector. Sharon developed the ANZ Truckometer, an economic indicator based on traffic flow data, and writes the weekly ANZ Charts that Matter. In addition to general macroeconomic analysis, she has a particular interest in machine learning and big data.

Penny Ford - ANZ General Manager, Auckland

Penny leads the Auckland & Northland team for ANZ's Commercial & Agri business. Prior to working in the Commercial & Agri business, Penny spent 16 years in Financial Markets across sales and structuring. While the majority of this time was in the New Zealand business, Penny also spent some time in Asia and Australia with ANZ. Penny has previously been a director on the UDC Board and ANZ Investments Board.

Two inspiring women with wonderful stories
